DIRECTOR'S REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH SEPTEMBER 2018

The trustees are pleased to present their report and the unaudited accounts of the charity for the year ended 30th September 2018.

Directors and Trustees
The directors of the charitable company (the charity) are its Trustees for the purpose of charity law and throughout this report are collectively referred to as the Trustees.

Government Document
The Charity is constituted as a company limited by guarantee, and governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. There is no share capital and every member of the company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the company while she/he is a member or within one year after she/he ceases to be a member, such amounts as may be required, not exceeding £1.00 in the event of winding up. The company is registered under the Charities Act 2011 and as such is not liable to income tax, corporation tax and capital gains tax.

Objects of the Charity
The Centre was established as a permanent organisation to co-ordinate and improve the knowledge, methods and working standards needed to protect and preserve leather objects for the benefit of the public, to promote research into leather conservation and to disperse knowledge through education and training. It has the more general aim to promote the conservation and restoration of leather objects for the public benefit.

The Trustees have had due regard to the guidance published by the Charity Commission on public benefit and in particular the supplementary guidance on public benefit and fee charging.

Appointment of Trustees
Members of the organisation can be co-opted during the year and nominated for election to the Executive Committee at the Annual General Meeting. The Board of Trustees consists of not more than 20 members who can serve for a period of three years before being nominated for re-election. Recruitment of Trustees is undertaken according to the skill mix required for the Committee and in accordance with the nomination process for the organisation.

Trustee Induction and Training
New Trustees are issued with an induction pack including a copy of the Articles of Association, Trustee Code of Conduct Guidelines, a list of current trustees and staff, a brief history of the Centre, current publicity material and financial statements. This includes a briefing of legal objections under charity and company law.
Organisation
The Board of Trustees administers the charity. The board meets three or four times a year and there are sub-committees covering finance and marketing which can meet more frequently if required. The Head of Conservation manages the Centre on a day to day basis with delegated authority for operational matters including administrative and conservation activities, within terms of delegation approved by the trustees.

Risk review
The Board of Trustees continues to review the risks to which the charity is exposed and systems are in place to mitigate these risks. Awareness of significant risks to funding has led to the development of a longer term strategic plan to diversify sources of funding and fee earning activities.

Achievements and Performance
The Leather Conservation Centre has enjoyed a considerable diversity of activities over the past 12 months, focusing its efforts on conservation education, expanding its specialist areas of knowledge, as well as working on a broad range of objects. Below are listed some of the significant achievements from the past year.

ICON Internship
Our recent intern Naomi Bergmans has successfully secured employment within the conservation field and continues to work with the LCC as a freelance conservator.

Teaching and Education
Training courses that have called upon the LCC's expertise in the field of leather conservation throughout the course of this year include:
- A training exchange with an antiques studio in Stockholm
- Two species identification courses
- A volunteer training course at the Museum of London.
Rosie Bolton has completed COSHH training this year and there is a commitment to identifying opportunities for staff that will add value and expand upon the LCC's current offer.

Projects:
- 1900 De Dion Bouton, for a private client
- Daimler, for Gaydon Museum
- 1954 Aston Martin, for a private client
- A Leather Chest
- Parchment Map
- Library Catalogue
- Alum-tawed gloves – including provision of an educational information board for Plymouth Museums.
- Footwear to be prepared for exhibition for Northampton Boot and Shoe Museum, including the conservation of an original 'Kinky' boot!
- Conservation of a pair of Holsters for the Wallace Collection.
- The treatment of a large collection of post mortem records with red rot for St Georges Hospital.
- Three large Chairs for King Edwards School in Whitley
The staff have also been occupied with plans for the studio relocation throughout the year and this has led to a review of current recommendations for best practice for conservation workspaces.

In addition we would like to acknowledge the work done by trustees on the move, the negotiations and many meetings throughout the year regarding this and the removals involved in the creation of the new studio.

Financial Review
The results for the year and the charity's financial position at the end of the year are shown in the attached accounts.

The Statement of Financial Activities shows a net surplus of £124,711

The Leather Conservation Centre had been housed since 1997 in a purpose-built Conservation Centre on the University of Northampton's Park Campus. The Centre was built and generously gifted to The Leather Conservation Centre by The Leathersellers' Company of the City of London, with a long underlease, who themselves held the head lease on the site from the University of Northampton. The University of Northampton's redevelopment plans for Park Campus necessitated that the LCC move off the Park Campus by the end of September 2018. In exchange for agreeing to surrender the underlease back to The Leathersellers' Company the LCC received compensatory payment as detailed below:

- A capital sum of £150,000 less fees
- A £30,000 sum per annum for 5 years
- A £10,000 sum towards professional fees.

Investments, Powers and Policy
Under the Articles of Association, the charity has the power to invest in any way the Trustees wish.

Plans for the Future
The Leather Conservation Centre moved out of Park Campus, Northampton, in October 2018 and moved into a new studio space in the Grosvenor Chambers, Northampton, in January 2019. The new studio is now located within the same building as the Museum of Leathercraft and it is hoped that this proximity will provide additional mutually advantageous opportunities for both organisations.

Every endeavour will continue to be made to increase the flow of conservation work through the studio whilst continually developing outreach activities, including training, teaching and disseminating of knowledge to both a national and international audience.
Public Benefits Statement
The Centre benefits the public in a number of ways. The long term preservation and conservation of historic objects made wholly or partly of leather ensures that these items are available for the public to view, and in some cases use, both now and in the future. The Centre advances knowledge and education in conservation by providing guidance, advocacy, training and education opportunities for the conservation profession and the wider heritage community. The Centre is also committed to public benefit through promoting public understanding of and access to the conservation of cultural heritage by giving talks to interested parties to further the public's understanding and awareness of conservation.

Related Parties
The Centre has close relationships with the Worshipful Company of Leathersellers, the Worshipful Company of Saddlers and the University of Northampton. All three organisations nominate a representative to serve on the Board of Trustees.

Reserves
The current reserve policy is to maintain sufficient cash flow for known commitments, and the replacement of certain assets. Not all grants are received at the beginning of the financial year others are received in arrears.
Company law requires the members of the Executive Committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the income and expenditure of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the members of the Executive Committee are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make adjustments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue its activities.

The members of the Executive Committee are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They have a general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Presented and approved by the board of trustees on 22nd February 2019 and signed on their behalf.

Martin Pebody Director
Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of:
THE LEATHER CONSERVATION CENTRE
Registered Charity Number: 276485

We report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 30th September 2018, which are set out on the attached pages 8 to 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to an audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act:
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act,

Basis of independent examiner's statement
Our examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures of the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's statement
In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the requirements:
   - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

   have not been met; or

2. to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
