Creggan Education & Research Services Limited

Independant Auditors' Report to the Members of Creggan Education & Research Services Limited

We have audited the accounts of Creggan Education & Research Services Ltd for the year ended 31 August 2018 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable by law and United Kingdom Accountancy Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors
As described on page 2 and 3 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the accounts in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the Audit of the Accounts
An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the accounts sufficient to give reasonable assurances that the accounts are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees; and overall presentation of the accounts. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the trustees' Annual Report to identify aterial inconsistencies with the audited accounts. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion
In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 August 2018 and of its loss for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies; and have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Opinion on Other Matter Prescribed by the Companies Act 2006
In our opinion the information given in the trustees' Annual Report for the financial year for which the accounts are prepared is consistent with the accounts.

Matters in Which we are Required to Report by Exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:
- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the accounts are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.
